CHARLOTTE'S WEBSeptember 23, 2011
Directed by Stacey Needle. This classic story about a pig, a young girl, and a special spider friend has been delighting audiences for years. When Wilbur the pig goes to the State Fair, he gets more than he bargained for! Charlotte the spider spins words in her webs to help spare Wilbur's life, but what will it cost her in the end?

RAPUNZELDecember 16, 2011
Directed by James Hunnicut. Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your hair! Trapped in a tower by her witch mother, Rapunzel longs for the day when she can get out and meet the people of the village. A Prince and his side kick conspire to save the damsel in distress.

ALEXANDER AND THE TERRIBLE, HORRIBLE, NO GOOD, VERY BAD, DAY.....February 24, 2012
Directed by Ryan Michael Haase. Nothing is going right for Alexander today, not school, not family, not his best friend, not anything. Sometimes it's just hard being a kid and getting through the day. And we all have bad days...

CLEVER RACHELMarch 30, 2012
A new play based on the book by Debby Waldman. The Center for Jewish Education in collaboration with Pumpkin Theatre has asked Moses Goldberg (former Artistic Director of Stage One! in KY) to adapt a BRAND NEW PLAY based on a Jewish folk tale – "Rachel the Clever". Join us as young Rachel solves riddles to make her small village (and maybe herself) a little wiser.
